BRUNSWICK FESTIVAL 2022 – AUGUST 20TH & 21ST SAVE THE DATE!

PRESS RELEASE (APRIL 2022)

We are delighted to announce that after a 2 year pause due to Covid-19 Brunswick Festival Group will be bringing people back together in Brunswick Square for a fabulous and fun weekend of free music and entertainment for the whole community.

Brunswick Festival is one of the longest running community festivals in the city. This year is especially special as we celebrate our 40th edition!

We are also delighted to announce that this year's event will be brought to you in partnership with Brighton and Hove Heritage Commission.

This is a fantastic new partnership that will help sustain and develop the festival for the future and support us to continue with our mission to offer diverse cultural activity that is free, inclusive and accessible to all.

Save the date and prepare to celebrate!

Quotes:

Brunswick Festival – Festival Director, Veronica Stephens:

"The past two year have been an extremely difficult and challenging time for all of us. We look forward to being able to reconnect with our local community and bring people back together again for a much needed joyful celebration!"

Brighton and Hove Heritage Commission - Heritage Commissioner and Chairman, Roger Amerena:

"This much loved annual event embodies inclusivity and continuity of our local heritage - the Heritage Commission is delighted to be able to partner with the Festival Group to ensure its continued success."

Brighton and Hove City Council grant panel :

"Brunswick Community Festival is one of the City's highest profile neighbourhood celebrations and the Festival group works with a wide range of third sector partners to ensure continuing high quality"
